

LEICESTERSHIRE JUDGE LEVEL 1 COURSES

A course will commence on Sunday 31 August for people wishing to take the Judge level 1 course.

This will be repeated on Tuesday 2 September.

The location of each workbook session will be dependant upon numbers applying for each and may be at different venues. They will be in the Leicester area.

The Sunday session will commence at 09:30 and finish at 11:30

The Tuesday session will commence at 19:00 and finish at 21:00.

I must receive application forms by 20 July including the relevant course fee.

The initial workbook session will cover the role of timekeeper and chief timekeeper including long distance galas and this will be followed by up to 4 poolside practical sessions plus working as a chief timekeeper with and without AOE.

There will be another workbook session covering the role of Inspector of turns including relay take-overs. This will be followed by up to 4 poolside practical sessions.

There will be a final workshop that will be revision of the previous two workbooks and questions from the poolside practical sessions plus the role of the Chief Inspector of Turns. This will be followed by a final poolside examination during a gala where you will show your capability of performing all tasks within one role.

Current ASA qualified timekeepers may, if they wish, miss the timekeeper workbook stage, but will still have to take the poolside practical examinations. A duly completed application form plus course fee will be required.

Application forms can be downloaded from the British Swimming website at

Please note that applicants will have to be registered with the A.S.A. as their registration number will be required on the application form. Contact your club membership secretary for details.

Workbooks can also be downloaded from the BS website to allow candidates to commence reading prior to the course starting. These are available from
